6. SHORT ESSAYS

Personal Statement

On a separate piece of paper, please write a short narrative that introduces you to us and explains why you want to be a Festival Fellow. You should include information about each of the following: your interest in the arts, creative writing, or non-profit management, and how this interest would contribute to the Festival; why you feel we should consider you for the program and the skills and qualities you would contribute to it; and what skills and knowledge you hope to gain throughout the Fellowship. Personal statement should be no more than a page.

Prompt Essay

Think about where you live, and who you spend your time with. How much does your community define who you are? Discuss ways that your community shapes your identity. Would you be a different person if you grew up someplace else? Response should be no more than a page.

7. ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Are you eligible for free or reduced-price lunch? Yes or No
