ARTIDEA.ORG/FELLOWSHIP

The International Festival of Arts and Ideas' Fellowship Program is a semester-long college-level course designed to develop students' skills in communication, creativity and critical thinking by immersing them in all aspects of the Festival: performances, lectures, community engagement, production, and arts management.

Through weekly seminars, a broad range of arts-related activities, and the attendance of diverse arts events, we aim to equip the Fellows with the skills to become the next generation of artists, thinkers, and audience members.

Fellows earn 3 college credits upon successful completion of the program.

PROGRAM DATES:

January 30 to June 22, 2019
